We Deliver Solutions!

Henry Skeeter" Lieberum is based in San Antonio, Texas and has over 15 years of experience as a management consultant, client manager, and project manager. A retired United States Air Force Major, Skeeter has served as a managing director of Holland and Davis, LLC and TBO International, LLC, developing client engagements in industries such as oil and gas, oilfield services, logistics and transportation, professional services, retail grocery, insurance, large utility, in both the commercial and government contracting sectors. He has significant experience in project management, management systems, personnel, operational efficiency and organizational restructuring and serves as Chief Operating Officer for Global Defense Consulting, Inc.

Skeeter is recognized as a change management and transformation expert who has been able to successfully align people, process, and technology on multiple projects in a large variety of industries to help clients achieve their business and operational goals. He is particularly adept at helping companies identify targeted solution options to resolve organizational efficiency issues, develop implementation plans to achieve the project objectives, and working with the companies to affect change in a way that does not disrupt the people and operations.

Skeeter is a seasoned project manager and management facilitator specializing in helping organizations define strategic and operational goals, providing the framework and structure to achieve those goals thus enabling the client to plot a clear path to project and organizational success.

Skeeter has a Masters Degree in Management and Organization Development from Webster University, and a Bachelor of Science in Technical Management from Regis University.

He is on the Board of Directors of the H-E-B School of Business, University of the Incarnate Word, and the Board of Advisors of the Greater San Antonio Chamber of Commerce.
